

Architecture

Directions: Read the passages over greek architecture, then examine the photos and answer the following questions.

Carefully examine the drawings of the three Greek columns and determine the order – Doric, Ionic, and Corinthian—to which each belongs based on the written information. Record the order of each column below.

1.

2.

3.

Examine the image on Placard 4.1 A. Then discuss the question with your partner and record your answers.

THEATRE

Directions: Look at the images, discuss with your partners and answer the following questions.

- Examine the images and answer these questions:
 - How does the seating arrangement in theater make it easy for the audience to see & hear what is happening?

 - Why would it be important for actors to wear large masks and colorful costumes?

Directions: Watch the video on the laptop, I-pad, or your phone and answer the following questions.

1. What keeps the Greek myths relevant?

2. What Greek God were annual parties held in honor of?

3. What were the three Genras of Greek Plays – DEFINE THEM
 - a.

 - b.

 - c.

4. Lampon:

5. Hubris:

6. Who are the three Great Athenian Play writs?
 - a.

 - b.

 - c.

Philosophers

Directions: Read the quotes by three great Greek philosophers that are on the wall and then answer the following questions in detail.

1. Overall, are the philosopher's ideas similar or different from each other? Why do you think so?
2. Overall, do you agree with their ideas? Why or why not?
3. Are the quotes still relevant today? Why or why not?
4. Pick one quote from each philosopher that you like and describe what it means and why you like it.
 - Socrates:

 - Plato:

 - Aristotle:

Part 2 Directions: Read the handout on the Greek philosophers and write down 2 of the most important facts for each.

- Socrates:

- Plato:

- Aristotle:

How are the philosophers related to each other?

What role do you think philosophy played in Greek culture and government?

What impact did Greek philosophy have on world history?

Greek Music

Part 3 Directions: Read the School of Athens

What were two instruments were used in Ancient Greece?

How was music used in Ancient Greece?

Do you like the way it sounds? Why or why not?

The Four Governments of Ancient Greece

	Monarchy	Oligarchy	Tyranny	Democracy
Who had the power to rule for this type of government?
Under this type of government, what rights did the people of Greece have?
What were some advantages of this government?
What were some disadvantages of this government?
How do you think people felt living under this type of government? Why?

SCIENCE & MATH

Name of the famous Greek (s)	Subject Area	Famous Findings	Impact on modern day

